Carlisle Engineered Products, Inc.

In Re: Delphi Corporation
Case No. 05-44481

This sets forth a proof of claim filed on behalf of Carlisle Engineered Products, Inc. ("Carlisle"). The total claim of Carlisle is in the principal amount owed of $4,666,870.27, together with net interest of approximately $201,000 computed at 9% per annum through the date of the petition for a total claim of $4,868,870.27 (the "Claim").

This proof of claim arises from goods sold and delivered, and there are several thousand invoices which are identified by Carlisle Invoice Number on the spreadsheet set forth as Exhibit "B".¹ The invoices themselves are not provided because they are voluminous.

Of this Claim, Carlisle is entitled to post-petition administrative expense priority under Sections 503(b) and 507(a)(1) (as it existed prior to October 17, 2005) of the Bankruptcy Code on: (a) the portion of the claim which was previously filed as a reclamation claim ($624,301.61) pursuant to Reclamation Demand filed on October 17, 2005 (the "Reclamation Claim"); and (b) portions of the Claim that are entitled to priority for payment for post-petition items delivered after the date of the petition (October 8, 2005) for which Carlisle is entitled to a priority claim of $105,149.16. The invoices that represent the $105,149.16 are included on Exhibit "B" and separately itemized on Exhibit "C" (collectively, the "Administrative Expense Claim Component").

To the extent that any portion of the Administrative Expense Claim Component is not granted administrative expense priority under Section 503(b) or 507(a)(1) (as it existed prior to October 17, 2005), such portion of the Administrative Expense Priority Component should be treated as a general unsecured claim.

To the extent that debtor is solvent or Carlisle is otherwise entitled to post-petition interest, this claim seeks post-petition interest.

Nothing in this claim waives, modifies, or limits any rights of Carlisle, all of which are expressly reserved, nor constitutes an admission of any kind. Carlisle reserves the right to amend, supplement or modify this claim at any time.

¹ In reviewing Exhibit "B", the column designated "Original Invoice/Transaction Date" is coded. The first number in the sequence is the year with the number "1" as a prefix; the second number is the month; and the third number is the day. For example, the first item on Exhibit "B" has a transaction date of "106/01/12". This represents January 12, 2006. The column, "Original Invoice Amount/Balance Owed" constitutes principal only. Because interest must be calculated on each invoice and there are several thousand invoices, the interest computation is too voluminous to attach. The interest computation will be provided upon request.
